

MRS. H. J. WHITLEY
of Hollywood, in whose honor a farewell reception was given last evening.

net with silver spangles over white silk. Mrs. Waldron wore a white mull gown trimmed with lace; Mrs. Pollock, blue crepe and val lace; Mrs. Lippincott, white mousseline, and Miss McCullough, black silk, lace and velvet.

Refreshments were served in the arcade, which was profusely decorated with red and yellow flowers and bright with many lights.

There were about 300 people in attendance from both Los Angeles and Hollywood and out-of-town points.

Mrs. Whitley and daughter, Grace, will visit first with Mrs. Whitley's sister in Minneapolis. They then will go North to Duluth and go by way of the Great Lakes to Niagara Falls. Mr. Whitley will meet them in New York, from where Mrs. Whitley and Miss Grace will sail for Vienna, Austria, to visit friends. Miss Grace will be placed with the best instructors in German, French and music. They will also visit Rome, Switzerland, the British Isles and Paris and next season Mr. Whitley will join them for a visit with his relatives in Scotland and an extensive tour of Europe. Ross, the son, will remain at Stanford.

FAREWELL TO MRS. WHITLEY.

Social Function in Hollywood for Resident About to Leave for Europe.

HOLLYWOOD, July 16.—Mrs. H. J. Whitley, who will leave for an extended eastern and European trip, was tendered a large and handsome reception at Hotel Hollywood this evening by her Hollywood friends. The hotel was brilliantly illuminated and the rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers. A string orchestra of ten pieces played during the evening and Mme. Johnston-Bishop sang several selections, "California," by Carlo Jacobs Bonds; "La Paloma," using the Spanish words, and "Coming Thru' the Rye."

Mrs. Whitley was lovely in a costume of white chiffon and rose point lace over white silk. She and Mr. Whitley stood to greet their guests in the wide hotel reception room. With them stood Misses Thomas Pollock, McJohnston, J. J. George, E. J. Waldron, A. B. Barrett, C. H. Lippincott, J. Brown, J. C. Koyon, C. H. Hancock, Alan Harding, M. J. Anderson, Clark Johnston-Bishop, Counts, Wachtel-Meier, Misses Myra Hersh, Eudora McCullough, Mrs. H. J. Koyon, Mrs. H. Sherman, Mary Elena Calhoun, J. Brown, Robert H. J. Bump, M. Douglas, J. Whitley, J. Jackson, George Hanna, Thomas Galt, W. John Law and W. C. Patterson.
